

LD/ADHD Lecture Series and Parent Support Group

Student Panel

Moderator: Melissa King, M.B.A., Certificate in College Admission Counseling

Be inspired by high school and college students with LD and/or ADHD who share their trials, tribulations and survival techniques over the years. Bring family members, teachers and children over age 10 who want to sit quietly with you to gain from the candid insights offered by the panelists.

Parents/ caregivers of children with LD and/or ADHD challenges are welcome to attend next month's Parent Support Group that meets before the Lecture, starting at 5:45 p.m. promptly. Share your experiences and concerns with others who can understand your fears and frustrations and will appreciate new ideas and resources. Come with one question/issue that is of high concern so that we can address it as a group. No charge for this one-hour support group session, but we do need you to sign in at registration.
