

Donation FAQ

Q. Is my donation tax-deductible?

A. Parents Helping Parents is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization (Tax ID# 94-2814246). Your donation is tax-deductible within the guidelines of U.S. law.

Q. How will I get a receipt?

A. Upon completion of your donation, your receipt will be sent to the email address you provide and will serve as your tax receipt. If you donate by check, you will be sent a receipt to your US postal mailing address. If you establish a recurring donation, you will receive a receipt each month.

Q. What type of donations does Parents Helping Parents Inc. accept?

A. We gladly accept donations from any of the following sources:

- Cash donations in the form of a check or online donation
- Stocks and securities
- Donor advised funds
- Individual Retirement Accounts (IRA)
- Beneficiary designations
- Wills and trusts

Q. Do you share my personal information with other parties?

A. Parents Helping Parents Inc. does not sell or share any information associated with your donation to parties external to Parents Helping Parents Inc. Review our Privacy Policy for more information.

Q. What is your reputation as a charitable organization?

A. Parents Helping Parents Inc. has consistently maintained a 4 out of 4 star rating on Charity Navigator and has earned a Platinum Transparency rating from Candid (formerly Guidestar). Parents Helping Parents Inc. has received numerous awards from local, state, and federal agencies over its 47 years in existence. The most important measure of our reputation, however, can be seen in how the PHP bi-annual client survey results consistently show that families value the support we provide, with 89% citing that their child's life has improved because of Parents Helping Parents Inc.

If you have any questions about making a donation to Parents Helping Parents Inc., please contact us at 408 727-5775.

